Why choose an FIA member agent?

FIA members are appointed by invitation only.

We are extremely careful in granting member status, our agents must adhere to high industry standards and those set by the FIA.

'We've established a select group of independent agents, invited to join the FIA based on their commitment to exceptional customer service and professionalism'.

Independent agency at it's finest

Choosing an estate agent can be quite daunting, there are many options. The FIA helps you make that decision by endorsing only one, exclusive local agent. It is our firm belief that no-one cares more about their customers than local independent business owners.

Qualification

Members are pre-qualified by the FIA before membership status is granted. This is to ensure competency, compliance and professionalism within their field of expertise. Giving you peace of mind that you're in safe hands.

By invitation only

FIA membership is by invitation only. All of our members have been selected based on their particular proficiency, skill and professionalism. We turn down many agents who we deem not suitable for FIA membership.

Training & compliance

Our members have access to exclusive and bespoke FIA approved staff training. Our online courses ensure continued best practice for members.

Marketing

FIA Members have a wide-range of modern and effective marketing tools at their disposal to ensure that you get the maximum exposure for your property.
